Getting there

Berrow is approximately one and a half miles from Burnham-on-Sea on the coast road running between Burnham and Brean. Berrow Triangle is on this road.

There are shops in Berrow where refreshments can be obtained. There are plenty of pubs, restaurants and cafes in Burnham-on-Sea.

Buses run regularly between Burnham and Weston-Super-Mare and stop at Berrow Triangle

Route instructions

[1] Leave the car park and cross over the main road using the pedestrian crossing. Go ahead on the track running between houses and out to the golf course. Do not pass through the gate onto the golf course instead turn right just before the gate and follow the path running behind a childrens play area and Berrow village green. After passing the green continue to follow the path now running between houses and the golf course. On approaching Berrow church turn left onto the path crossing the golf course and follow it. After crossing the golf course the path goes through dunes and then turns right to run alongside dense vegetation on the right. In a short distance a path turns off left. Follow this out onto the beach,

[2] On the beach turn left and walk along it all the way into Burnham. After passing the wooden lighthouse on the beach continue onwards until a path on the left descending steps is reached. Turn onto this path which leads up to a road end. Walk ahead along the road until reaching the junction with the main Berrow Road.

[3] Turn left into Berrow Road and follow it passing the stone lighthouse on the left. Continue on until reaching a left turn where a sign points to the Burnham & Berrow golf course club house. Turn left into this road and follow it to the golf club gate. At the gate turn right onto a footpath running along the back of house on the right and alongside the golf course on the left. Follow this path. The path has vegetation between it and the golf course until it comes out to run on the edge of the golf course just before Berrow Triangle. On this section turn right through the gate and follow the access road between house out to the main road which cross back to the car park.
